Not A Tack—Not A Nail Billiken Shoes

Are made without a tack or nail; of the softest, toughest leather known, on broad, sensible, improved foot-form lasts—the most perfect child's shoe ever made—The one shoe a child outgrows.

Buy "Billiken" Shoes and let the children romp and play to their heart's content without annoyance to you, injury to the home or discomfort to themselves.

The growing feet of children are easily irritated by stiff soles or narrow shoes. "Billiken" Shoes are made by specialists in the largest shoe factory in the world, devoted exclusively to the manufacture of Children's High Grade Shoes. The soles on "Billiken" Shoes are Pure Oak Flexible Leather—the softest and most pliable leather known, being especially prepared to withstand hard service. The absence of nails, tacks, etc., prevents the children scarring the floors and furniture. The soft soles render the shoes noiseless. Flexible soles make them as comfortable as a moccasin. The durable leather makes them as lasting as a man's heavy shoes. And they are extremely stylish.

Let Us Show You "Billikens".

TWO MORE WEDDINGS

Well Known Young Folks Kneel at Hymeneal Altar.

Miss Mabel Harris, youngest daughter of J. H. Harris and wife, became the wife of Mr. Roy Bryant of Prosperity, at the home of the bride's parents in Jasper Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Moore, pastor of the M. E. Church, conducting the ceremonial rites.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of light yellow soft silk. She is one of Jasper's best loved young ladies and will be greatly missed in the church and social circles of the community where she has been a central figure.

Mr. Bryant is a merchant in Prosperity, a young man of splendid character and integrity. He, too, has been active in religious work and is an officer in the Jasper County Sunday School Association. He took his bride at once to a home he had furnished for her at Prosperity. They left Monday for a short honeymoon trip to the Ozark country about Branson, going by motor car.

The wedding party were nearly all members of the families of the contracting parties, as follows: J. H. Harris and wife, parents of the bride; Roy Harris and wife and George Probert and family, relatives of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Bryant, parents of groom; Miss Mary Alice Drake, a close friend of the bride, and Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Moore.

Joe B. Edwards and Miss Beulah Patterson slipped off Wednesday, October 25, and were married at the parsonage of the M. E. Church, at Columbus, Kans., by Rev. E. J. Gardner. They left at once for a honeymoon trip to Dallas, Texas, and other southern points.

The marriage unites two of Jasper County's best known families, the bride being the daughter of I. O. Patterson and wife and Mr. Edwards being a son of J. W. Edwards and wife, and there are no young folks in the community better liked. For several years the bride has been much sought after in local entertainments, she being a violinist of considerable talent.

They will soon be at home to their many friends on a farm just south of Jasper.

THE THIRD AMENDMENT

Will Its Passage be a Benefit or a Detriment

Read the testimony of Gordon Jones, president of one of the biggest banks in Denver and the west, which he gave in an address before the Third Amendment Association at a dinner at the Coates House, Kansas City, last week.

He held before his hearers a picture of Denver, a hustling western city of approximately 250,000 people, without the "booze" incubus—a city of increased luxuries, augmented bank deposits and depleted jails; a Denver without remorse.

He told of women who no longer bend over the washtub of increased rents and not a really comfortable flat or bungalow in the city without a tenant. He told of collections that have gone up 48 per cent and he said a surprising thing. He said that if the people of Colorado had to vote on prohibition a second time the majority that made the state dry would be more than doubled.

And two years ago when they were to vote the saloon out of the state the wets of the great state of Colorado were predicting business stagnation and awful calamity to the big cities of the state if the saloon was driven out.

And right now the brewery interests of this state are telling the people of Missouri the same things—and some folks believe them.

Mrs. M. T. Grider Injured.

Last Thursday afternoon as Rell Boyd, Mrs. M. T. Grider and a little son of J. A. Boyd were driving north from Jasper their horse refused to pass a large stone that had been laid over a hole in the Coon Creek bridge, and backed the buggy off the bridge approach and the buggy, occupants, horse and all fell over the embankment and rolled down to the water's edge. Boyd got free first and jumped on the horse's head and held him down while the little boy ran to Vincent's for help to get Mrs. Grider out of the way. The lady was too badly injured to help herself. Two ribs were fractured and shoulder and hip hurt severely. She is now getting along well.

Charley Ward, the new road overseer had the bridge repaired the next day, that being his first job since his appointment.

Children's Home Superintendent Here.

Rev. A. J. Markley, district superintendent of the Children's Home Society, of Missouri, and who has visited Jasper so many times that he is quite well known to many, spent last Sunday and Monday morning here in the interest of his work. Mr. Markley has in his charge just now at Springfield three very fine little ones which he wants to place in good homes. One is a 3-year-old boy and the others are girls 5 and 6 years of age. Interested parties can get in touch with Mr. Markley by writing him at Springfield.

What is Home Rule?

It is the abating of the sovereign power vested in the State by the Constitution and turning the large cities over to themselves without any interference whatever from the Constitution and the sovereign State of which they are a part. It is the committing of the homes, the schools and the churches of our large cities to the tender mercies of the brewers, the ruffians, the cutthroats, the criminals of all classes, for it is a lamentable fact that in our large cities the lawless, corrupt element outvotes the decent element. In the sad day, when Home Rule triumphs, every saloon in our large cities will be open on Sunday, for it is the main purpose of the brewers that with open saloons and a free hand they will get the week's wages of the laboring man, which should go to his family. Sunday will be a holiday when drunkenness, filth and debauchery shall reign supreme, and Hell untrammelled and unbridled run riot in the streets.—Judge Wm. H. Wallace of Kansas City.

Wheat & Ward Buy Store.

Joe H. Deardorff sold his grocery store to J. R. Wheat and Bert Ward Tuesday. The style of the new firm name will be Wheat & Ward. Mr. Deardorff's health has not been good lately and he found it necessary to get out of the store. Mr. Wheat, who established the store and sold it to Mr. Deardorff about two years ago, is glad to get back into business, and together with his son-in-law, Mr. Ward, they will keep the store up to its high standard.

M. E. Church Notice.

Sunday was a very busy day. Services were all well attended. Attendance at Sunday School was 141. Three additions to the church. Special attention will be given next Sunday evening to the Prohibition Amendment and to some of the literature opposing it.

Plans are under way for the union revival which is to begin the 2nd Sunday in November.

We want you with us if you have no church home. J. W. Moore Pastor.

Scratch "No."

Mr. Farmer, if you want an honest ballot box in this state, and if you want to prevent a lot of illegal voting in the large cities, where so often fraudulent majorities are piled up to overthrow the honest rural vote, cast your ballot for the Third Amendment. Just scratch "No." for the liquor business is and always has been a deadly foe to honest elections.

Quarterly Conference.

Rev. J. R. Strong, Presiding Elder of the Joplin District, will preach at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday at 11 a. m. Business meeting Saturday at 3 p. m. Preaching 7:30 p. m. by the pastor, L. L. Pinnell.

Vote for Dr. E. McCoy for Coroner. He will look after the duties of the office carefully and will not pile up a lot of useless expenses on the county. The right man in this office will save the taxpayers much money every year, and Dr. E. McCoy is the right man.—Adv.
